

Entity: Faculty of Economic Sciences University of Warsaw

Position: PhD Student - scholarship

Requirements:

- Master's degree in Economics, Mathematics or Sociology or obtaining this degree until October 1st, 2019;
- Doctoral student status (or being accepted for doctoral studies for the academic year 2019/2020).
- Interest in decision modeling, behavioral economics and preferably migration.
- Fluent knowledge of English.

Description of tasks:

The objective of the project is to broaden the knowledge of the relationships between migration intentions and migration behavior.

The doctoral co-investigator will be involved in all phases of the project to increase his/her learning opportunities. In particular, the co-investigator will:

1. assist in the first stage (conceptual) of the study by helping with the desk research (literature review)
2. assist in the second stage (fieldwork), by providing assistance in carrying out the pilot studies and the real studies
3. assist in the third stage (data analysis), by creating a catalogue of existing data on migration intentions and conducting comparative analyses of the quantitative meta data, and also participating in quantitative data analyses
4. assist in the fourth stage (dissemination), by participating in the preparation of publications and/or conferences.

The research assistant will be engaged on a part-time basis.

Employment conditions:

Scholarship of PLN 1500 PLN/month for up to 32 months (for part-time engagement), subject to an evaluation procedure after 6 months of employment.

Additional information:

Required documents:

1. Scientific CV including scientific accomplishments and publications, information about awards, scholarships and participation in conferences;
2. Information about the course of the doctoral studies so far or a declaration of undertaking doctoral studies (for those who commence doctoral studies during the academic year 2019/2020);
3. A one-page motivation letter describing research interests of the candidate.

Please send your submission to: ajanicka@wne.uw.edu.pl

Submission date: September 25th, 2019, 23:59

Submission form: email

Starting date: October 1st, 2019.